VARANASI: 'Shiksha Express', a bus converted into a classroom on wheels, has been launched to impart education to the children living in different slums in the city.

A Varanasi Municipal Corporation initiative, the high-tech classroom is equipped with the state-of-the-art facilities and has seating arrangements for 35 children. Prime Minister Narendra Modi launched it in his parliamentary constituency Varanasi on February 16. A brainchild of Varanasi Municipal Commissioner Gaurang Rath, the Shiksha Express will go to slum daily to teach children.

"At least two teachers will remain onboard. They will teach children between 4pm and 7pm daily through project and smart medium of teaching. A record of the children who attend the classes will also be maintained," said Rath.

As of now, arrangement of five teachers has been made.

Try to Fight Foundation is partnering with the VMC to will provide teachers and educate kids. "It will teach children in a particular slum for about one month or two months and then will move on to other one," said Rath.

The VMC has spent Rs 4.5 lakh to convert an old bus into Shiksha Express.

"There is a projector and a black board. Fans and projectors on it run by solar energy," said Rath.

"It is an effort to take the classroom to the doorstep of the children," Rath insisted.

If all goes well, Rath said, the Varanasi Municipal Corporation would try to convert some more buses into the express.

We are thrilled to share one of the most significant highlights of the year - the acquisition of the "Shiksha Express," a state-of-the-art bus equipped with smart classrooms, generously provided by the Municipal Corporation Varanasi and Uttar Pradesh government. This milestone has paved the way for our groundbreaking "Education on Wheels" program, which aims to bring quality education directly to the slum areas we serve.

The Shiksha Express is not just an ordinary bus; it is a transformative educational tool that has enabled us to reach even the most remote and marginalized communities. The bus is equipped with cutting-edge technology, including smart boards, projector and audiovisual systems, creating an immersive and interactive learning environment on wheels.

The smart classrooms inside the Shiksha Express provide a dynamic and engaging learning experience, with educational content tailored to suit different age groups and subjects. Qualified teachers accompany the bus, delivering lessons, facilitating discussions, and providing individual attention to each student. This unique initiative has sparked enthusiasm and a love for learning among the children, igniting their curiosity and paving the way for a brighter future.

We express our deepest gratitude to the Municipal Corporation Varanasi and Uttar Pradesh government for their generous support and recognition of our mission. Their collaboration has truly transformed the way we deliver education to the underserved communities in slum areas.

The Concept

Early childhood sets the path for a whole life. International study has convincingly shown that 90% of brain growth happens before the age of five. This indicates that children's environments, as well as the inputs and support they receive during their early years, will have a significant impact on their future.

The substantial long-term benefits include improved school learning and higher educational attainment, which results in significant social and economic dividends for society. Yet many barriers hold communities back.

Our goal is to ensure that every child in the slums has a chance to go to school and achieve their dreams.

IMPACT OF MISSION SLUM TO SCHOOL

The impact of the Mission Slum to School program has been profound and transformative. By focusing on providing primary education to children in slum areas and facilitating their transition into formal schools, the program has brought about significant changes in the lives of these children and their communities. Here are some key impacts of the program:

1. Increased Access to Education: The program has successfully increased access to education for children in slum areas who previously had limited or no opportunities for schooling. It has enabled them to receive primary education, which is crucial for their overall development and future prospects.
